

AUTHORITY TO ADMINISTER ATTORNEY'S OATH

Following is a list of those officials in the state of California who are authorized to administer the Attorney's Oath, which is required to practice law in California.

- A judge of any court of record. CCP §2093 (a).
- A justice of any court of record. CCP §2093(a).
- A former judge or justice of a court of record (as long as the judge or justice was not facing charges at the time of resignation or retirement). CCP §2093(c), Gov. Code §1225.
- The clerk of any court of record. CCP §2093(a).
- A court commissioner of any court of record. CCP §259 (d).
- A notary public. CCP §2093(a).
- A shorthand court reporter. CCP §2093(b).
- An officer of the executive branch of government (i.e. Governor, Lieutenant Governor). Gov. Code §1225.
- Any member of the Legislature. Gov. Code §1225, §9404.
- The President of the Senate. Gov. Code §9190, §1225.
- The President Pro Tempore of the Senate. Gov. Code §9190, §225.
- The Speaker of the Assembly. Gov Code §9190, §1225.
- The Speaker Pro Tempore of the Assembly. Gov. Code §9190, §1225.
- The Secretary of the Senate. Gov. Code §9191.5.
- The Chief Clerk of the Assembly. Gov. Code §9191.5.
- Any county officer (i.e. district attorney, registrar of voters, assessor, member of the Board of Supervisors). Gov. Code §24057.
- Public officer deputies (i.e. deputy district attorney). Gov. Code §24057.
- Members, State Bar Board of Governors. Bus. Prof. Code. §6052.
- Judges of the State Bar Court. Bus. Prof. Code §6086.5, CCP §2093(a).